Best Guess Lyrics

Honey, after all I did for you,
You told me baby, that you were through
You got to reap just what you sow

[Ya'll my money you left me cold in hand]
Takin' my money give it to your other man
You got to reap just what you sow

Cried all last night and the night before
[Change the way I'm living], ain't gonna cry no more
You got to reap just what you sow

When you quit me you didn't even shake my hand
That's alright, you're gonna understand
You got to reap just what you sow

All I ever did for you
You say [it, baby, you are through]
You got to reap just what you sow

Goodbye, I hate to see you go
I might not never see you no more
You got to reap just what you sow
